OVERVIEW

Andrew Liese has a business-oriented practice, with an emphasis on advising emerging businesses and technology companies. Prior to re-joining KTC, Andy spent over ten years as in-house counsel for multiple tech companies, counseling clients on licensing agreements, data privacy, product development, and international trade compliance, among other matters. Andy's in-house experience makes him uniquely suited to serve his clients as outside general counsel and advise on a wide range of legal issues confronting their businesses.

Andy also has extensive experience assisting banks and other lenders in workout scenarios and representing creditors, debtors, and other stakeholders in bankruptcies, receiverships, and other insolvency proceedings.
