Real Estate & Land Use Litigation

Real Estate Development & Land Use

OVERVIEW:

Lindsey's practice focuses on real estate litigation, including land use and commercial landlord-tenant disputes. She works closely with clients to address real estate problems, whether that means reaching an out-of-court resolution or preparing an insightful litigation strategy.

She has represented property owners in a wide range of matters, from high-profile disputes over mountain property to commercial evictions that require a sensible, cost-effective approach.

Prior to joining the firm Lindsey began her career in private practice as an associate with an international law firm. She previously served as a law clerk for the Honorable Lino Lipinsky de Orlov of the Colorado Court of Appeals. As a law clerk, she researched and drafted numerous opinions on a broad range of complex civil and criminal topics.
